

www.julieannejones.com

Sharing Your Story with Your Host at the Host Coaching

Presenting an engaging, interesting story at the end of your host coaching appointment allows your host to feel more connected with you, creating interest in what you have to offer as well as putting you both at ease. Let's get to it!

What was your first experience with your company like? Was it a party or show? Who was the host? What did it feel like? What did you like about it?

Why did you become a representative for your company? What did you see/hear that caught your attention?

What benefits has your business provided for you and your family? (Why do you love your job?)

Thoughts to consider as you design your Introduction:

- Focus on booking seeds.
- Focus on recruiting seeds.
- Relate your personal positive experience in your business thus far in story form.